

University of Toronto Chinese Christian Fellowship Constitution

Section I: Constitution

Article I: Name

The name of the organization shall be University of Toronto Chinese Christian Fellowship, hereafter referred to as "UTCCF".

Article II: Purpose

1. To deepen the spiritual lives of the members of the UTCCF and to have fellowship with one another.
2. To bear witness to the Lord Jesus Christ.
3. To prepare the Christian student for life after university as socially responsible individuals who remain in their faith with integrity.
4. To stimulate active interest in evangelistic work on campus.

Article III: Statement of Faith

1. The unity of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit in the Godhead.
2. The sovereignty of God in creation, revelation, redemption and final judgment.
3. The divine inspiration and infallibility of the Scriptures, and its supreme authority in all matters of faith and conduct.
4. The universal sinfulness and guilt of human nature since the fall, rendering man subject to God's wrath and condemnation.
5. That redemption from guilt, penalty, and power of sin is possible only through the sacrificial death, as our Representative and Substitute, of Jesus Christ, who is the Incarnate Son of God.
6. The resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.
7. The necessity of the work of the Holy Spirit to make the death of Christ effective to the individual sinner, granting him repentance toward God and faith in Jesus Christ.
8. The indwelling and work of the Holy Spirit in the believer.
9. The one holy universal Church, which is the body of Christ, and to which all true believers belong.
10. The expectation of the personal return of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Article IV: Membership

Membership Eligibility

1. Membership is available to any individual within the University of Toronto community (student, staff, faculty or alumni) who has read the Purpose (Article II) and the Statement of Faith

(Article III) of UTCCF and understands the principles and implications contained therein.

Responsibilities of Membership

2. Members are responsible for their own conduct in all matters within the UTCCF context; specifically their actions shall not violate any laws or by-laws that have jurisdiction within the UTCCF context whether they be University of Toronto by-laws or other laws of the land. Members shall support UTCCF by recognizing the purpose, the ideology and the work of UTCCF. Furthermore, members shall know and understand the UTCCF Constitution and agree to abide by the articles and by-laws contained therein.

Grounds for Revocation of Membership

3. Failure to meet the responsibilities, as specified in the above paragraph, by a member is sufficient grounds for the revocation of his or her membership. Revocation of membership shall be decided by a unanimous vote by the Executive Committee. This vote shall be carried out at the discretion of the Executive Committee. Should the Executive Committee unanimously decide to revoke a person's membership, the member under scrutiny shall have the right to defend their membership rights through discussion with the Executive Committee. The member under scrutiny also has the right to appeal to the general membership if he or she disagrees with the Executive Committee's final decision. The appeal for revocation shall be decided by a majority vote by the general membership and Executive Committee. The vote must consist of no less than two-thirds of the general membership's population.
